"Where Heart Meets Canvas"

Lu Frederick (LuluMagoo) with her work

"Bare Yet Unknown" - fluid painting by LuluMagoo

THE ARTIST

LuluMagoo is the art name of Lu Frederick, a Colorado-based fluid artist. Her work is built on bold, body-forward figures in bright color - the pour is the method, the figure is the subject. Painting live puts that process in front of an audience: color poured and moved in real time, with the figure emerging as the piece comes together.
